

GOVERNOR SMALL READS MESSAGE TO THE ASSEMBLY

First Woman Member in History of State Present

(By The Associated Press.)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., Jan. 3.—Members of the fifty-third general assembly today heard the biennial message of Governor Len Small in their first joint session and had among them the first woman legislator in the history of the state, Mrs. Lottie Holman O'Neill of Downers Grove. Coincident with the precedent established by Mrs. O'Neill as a legislator David E. Shanahan was named speaker by a vote of 88 to 64 over John P. Divine, Democrat, Dixon, marking Shanahan's fourth term as speaker.

At the end of the present session he will have served thirty years as a member of the house, or longer than any other member. Mrs. O'Neill cast the first vote in the session, declining her seat for Speaker Shanahan. She was then excused to participate in the ceremonies arranged for her locally.

Honor usually accorded the speaker and other officers of the assembly was swept aside and Mrs. O'Neill was placed in the limelight by eloquence from both Republican and Democratic members. She selected an aisle seat—a position always sought by veteran members—and her desk was decorated with bouquets. Not since the presence of Clemenceau in this city, has so much pomp and ceremony been displayed, and Springfield, the women representatives of clubs from all parts of the state, and a special delegation of 300 women from Chicago and from the forty-first district, Mrs. O'Neill's home, all concentrated their efforts in welcoming her.

Various organization committees were appointed temporarily by the speaker. Upon the joint session of the bodies, Governor Small read his message.

Governor Small indicated that the aggregate of the proposed general budget for the biennium will be "several million dollars less than the aggregate appropriations made by the fifty-second assembly," while the budget for the department of public welfare will not exceed the appropriation of two years ago. The governor added that he also hoped to "greatly curtail building activities during the next two years."

The governor recommended the re-appropriation of the $19,000,000 remaining of the $20,000,000 bond issue authorized in 1908 for completion, with the exception of power plants, of the Illinois waterway. He further recommended that the assembly memorialize congress to proceed with the improvement of the Illinois and Mississippi rivers from Utica to Cairo, so as to provide a nine foot channel for navigation, and at the same time to consider such remedial work as necessary in connection with change of location.

State Finances Better.

The financial condition of the state is better today than at any time in its history, said the governor, turning to the subject of finance and taxes. The balance January 1, 1923, was $22,820,192.79, according to the governor who added, the record will prove that in the departments under the supervision of the governor the strictest economy consistent with the best interests of the state has been practiced and that there have been no illegal expenditures or no improper diversion of appropriations.

"I would suggest that the assembly investigate other means of indirect taxation and give serious consideration to still further increasing the inheritance tax," the governor said. "I call your attention to the necessity of amending our revenue laws to establish a more equitable distribution of the burdens of taxation, and especially with a view to compelling the hidden wealth to bear its just share of the expenses of government."

ALEXANDER BELL'S WIDOW DIES AFTER EXTENDED ILLNESS

Passed Away at the Home of Her Daughter in Washington

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Mrs. Alexander Graham Bell, 63, widow of the famous inventor died tonight after a long illness. Mrs. Bell died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. David Fairchild, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Hubbard of Cambridge, Mass. The Hubbard family traced its ancestry far back thru a line of American pioneers to the early kings of England.

Mrs. Bell lived under an affliction of total deafness that followed a severe attack of scarlet fever in her childhood. Thru the devotion of her mother she learned to speak and to read the lips of others.

She married Mr. Bell in Boston in 1874, after she had studied at his school for voice culture. It was said she was his inspiration for the invention of the telephone because his hope that he might find a means of enabling her to hear led him into his study and experiments.

Few persons realize the benefits that deaf children have derived as the result of the long illness that robbed little Mabel Hubbard of her hearing, for it was her father who in 1867 discovered thru her that the sign language was the only means of educating deaf children.

Mrs. Bell is survived by two daughters, Elsie May Grosvenor, wife of Dr. Gilbert Grosvenor, president of the national geographic society and Marian Hubbard Fairchild, wife of Dr. David Fairchild of the department of agriculture and by Grace Hubbard Bell, her sister.

MAY BE CONTEST IN FULLER ESTATE

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Indications of a contest over the estate of Mrs. Maude Fuller Delius, daughter of the late Melville E. Fuller, former chief justice of the United States, was heard before Frederick W. Elliott, assistant probate judge. Two men presented themselves as administrators of the estate of which an $87,000 bank account is an important part. They were Gregory T. VanMeter, public administrator and Henry C. Morris, appointed administrator to collect by the probate judge.

The body of Mrs. Delius was found in her apartment last Saturday.

Search for a will has been unavailing. If the will is found Morris will be the administrator and until then the public administrator is in charge. According to witnesses offered by the public administrator, two half sisters, Mrs. Mildred Wallace of Washington and Mrs. Jane Fuller Francis of New York are the legal heirs.

SEVERAL BELIEVED DEAD IN BRIDGE COLLAPSE

(By The Associated Press.)
KELSO, Wash., Jan. 3.—Several persons are believed dead and a number injured as a result of the collapse of a bridge here today. The structure was crowded with spectators watching a log jam as well as carrying its usual day traffic and it is estimated that from 100 to 150 persons and ten or more motor vehicles were precipitated into the Cowlitz river, swollen by recent rains, by the crash.

At 8 o'clock eighteen persons were reported missing. Many who were on the ends of the bridge escaped by clambering up its hanging portions but at 7 o'clock two hours after the collapse less than 40 persons had been taken from the water. Four of these were injured seriously.

No bodies had been recovered then.

LIGHT COMPANY HAS BIG TURBINE

A turbine of giant size, capable of adding 1500 kilowatts to the power of the utilities plant, is being installed at the plant of the Jacksonville Railway & Light company on South Main street, work having begun yesterday. Several heavy wagons and eight horses were needed for the transportation of the engine from the railway to the plant, the job being in charge of J. Cohen & Son.

HI-Y CLUB MEETS AT WESTMINSTER TONIGHT

The Hi-Y Club will meet this evening at 5:45 o'clock at Westminster church. The supper will be served by Mrs. J. T. Gunn and other women of the church. This is the first of a series of several meetings of the club to be held at Westminster.

MAY GET OIL TRUCK

L. V. Baldwin, county superintendent of highways, was in Peoria Wednesday with the purpose of securing an additional oil truck for Morgan county to use next spring. Peoria county is releasing a government truck, and it is hoped to secure it for use here.

MARTIAL LAW IS POSSIBILITY AS HEARINGS NEAR

Known That Edict Has Been Signed by Governor Parker

(By The Associated Press.)
BASTROP, La., Jan. 3.—The possibility of martial law hovered over Morehouse parish tonight as state troops, civil authorities and the state's legal forces rounded out their final preparations for the company hearing into the Morehouse kidnaping cases which will begin Friday.

Governor Parker has signed a martial law edict and placed it in the hands of Adjutant General Tombs to be promulgated at his discretion. It was generally admitted. The governor and attorney general in keeping with their policy of silence declined to make an official announcement in this regard.

"I am here as the military representative of the governor to take such action under his direction as the situation at any time may warrant," Colonel Tombs said tonight. "As conditions present themselves they will be met adequately. No action has been taken which would place the parish under control of the military and any reports to the contrary are incorrect."

The adjutant general visited Mer Rouge and Bastrop today conferring with the officers commanding the four units of state troops stationed there.

The Jennings cavalry troop established camp at Mer Rouge today alongside the Monroe Infantry company that has been on duty here since the state's open investigations into the kidnaping of five citizens of Morehouse and the murder of two began two weeks ago. The New Orleans Machine Gun company and the Alexandria Infantry continued to occupy the square guarding the court house and jail.

Dr. B. M. McKoin former mayor of Mer Rouge, arrested in Baltimore on a charge of murder in connection with the cases was expected to reach here Friday with the officers sent to extradite him. The physician will return to the state a free man in accordance with an agreement reached today between Governor Parker and Governor Ritchie of Maryland in regard to the contest extradition papers.

What charges the state will place against him when he reaches Louisiana still could not be learned tonight. The state made no move today that would indicate the significance of the moving of this unit. It was understood to be assigned the task of rounding up those whom the state will charge with implication in the masked and mob action of last August and also for serving subpoenas on witnesses who will be expected to testify at the open hearings.

MURDERED MAN WILL BE BURIED IN CITY

The body of Hiram Cummings, local colored man, who was murdered in Peoria last Thursday night is now in the undertaking parlors of Arthur G. Cody, Frank Linn, a colored porter at a Peoria soft drink joint, is being held for the alleged murder of Cummings. Testimony brought out at the inquest showed that there had been trouble between the two men early in the evening and that Linn had been seen following Cummings to his home.

Cummings was found dead at the door of his rooming house with his nose and cheek bone crushed by a blow from a piece of board.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 o'clock this morning, in charge of Rev. H. H. DeWitt.

AMERICAN VICTIM OF DUELISTS' FIRE

Mexico City, Jan. 3.—George W. Stebbins, American owner of an automobile repair shop, was mortally wounded tonight when he walked into the line of fire between two military men engaged in a pistol duel in the streets. Five others were seriously wounded, including General Leovigildo Avila and Lieutenant Colonel Constantino Lascana, principals in the duel.

The fusillade started when the military officials engaged in an altercation over assertions made by Deputy Trillo, who was in the party.

CHICAGO BOARD OF TRADE GETS MORE POWER

Chicago, Jan. 3.—The Chicago Board of Trade adopted an amendment today giving to the directors of the board power to ward promptly suspending any member who may become insolvent.

SCORES SEE ROBBING OF BANK MESSENGER

Los Angeles, Cal., Jan. 3.—A messenger of the Hellman bank was robbed of $15,000 today by four robbers in the wholesale district, before the gaze of at least two score pedestrians.

Gives Employees His Business

Henry A. Dix of the firm of H. A. Dix & Sons, New York City, has just given his entire business, which yields a revenue of over $1,000,000 a year, to his employees. Dix and his son have withdrawn from financial control. All profits will go to the workers.

Official Washington Considers Reparations

HARDING VETOED BURSUM PENSION BILL YESTERDAY

Little Likelihood of Passing the Bill Over Veto

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The reparations impasse in Europe took a tightening grip on the attentions of official Washington today as the allied premiers again assembled and adjourned in Paris in a general atmosphere of doubt and apprehension.

George Harvey, American ambassador at London summoned home to contribute his knowledge of the situation to the deliberations of officials here in their desire to aid toward a settlement, spent the entire day at the white house and state department, but if his conferences with highest officials of the government led to any definite decision it was guarded scrupulously. In the senate where the administration's attitude toward reparations so recently weathered a three day tempest of debate there were signs of another approaching storm, centering this time around a proposal by Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas to authorize American representation on the reparations commission.

Everywhere there was ample evidence that every move made in Paris conference was watched from Washington with a keen realization that what is said and done there may weigh tremendously in determining the future policy of the American government. Outwardly there was a show of confidence that the threatened break between Great Britain and France would be avoided, but inwardly the government appeared to be asking itself again the questions propounded by Secretary Hughes in his speech at New Haven:

"How can the United States help in this matter? If statesmen cannot agree and such an alternative is faced, what can be done? Is there not another way out?"

What may be the precise role of Colonel Harvey in the present cautious search for a proper avenue of American helpfulness remained an unanswered question. If he brought any suggested plan or any intimation of attitude from any foreign government, it was not revealed.

MAGNUSON TO BE GIVEN HEARING TODAY

(By The Associated Press.)
WISCONSIN RAPIDS, Wis., Jan. 3.—John Magnuson, a farmer residing near Marshfield, charged with murder in connection with the death of Mrs. James Chapman, when a bomb sent her husband thru the mails exploded will be given a preliminary hearing tomorrow. Magnuson today retained E. Briere, former mayor of Green Bay, to defend him. County authorities said today that in searching the Magnuson farm they had found a trigger similar to the one found in the bomb sent to Chapman. They expressed the theory that it had been made and then discarded when it was found to be too large.

MISS PLETCHER OWNS THE GET FORD

The second most valuable gift in the local merchants campaign, a Ford car, is now the property of Miss Louise Fletcher, of the faculty of the Jacksonville high school. As Miss Fletcher's father, Rev. E. L. Fletcher, is already the owner of a sedan, it is quite likely that the gift Ford will be sold. It goes without saying that Miss Fletcher appreciated the good luck that this gift symbolizes.

SUBMIT FIGURES SHOWING PROFITS OF STANDARD OIL

Senate Probe Shows Average Over One Cent a Gallon

(By The Associated Press.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—Profits averaging from one cent to one and a half cents are realized by the Standard Oil company of New York upon each gallon of gasoline produced in its refineries according to statements submitted by the corporation today in the senate oil investigation.

Testimony was presented to the senate manufactures committee conducting the inquiry by four officials of the Standard of New York, who replying to questions put by the committee counsel, described in detail operations of the company in the fields of foreign and domestic trade, transportation and finance.

Incidentally the committee got its first direct information as to salaries paid high officials of oil companies.

The statement as to profits on gasoline was made by Howard A. Wilkinson, a director of the corporation in charge of domestic sales. He estimated the spread in gasoline between the refineries of the Standard Oil of New York and the company's filling stations in the territory it covers—New York and the New England states—at seven cents a gallon. This spread, he said, was taken up by a little more than one and a half cents a gallon for freight and little more than four cents for marketing with the balance representing profits to the company.

The information as to salaries was brought out by Chairman La Follette, Representative of companies appearing previously before the committee were asked to submit a list of their higher officials and the salaries paid each. When Howard E. Cole, third vice-president of the Standard of New York, asked him point blank what his salary was, Mr. Cole plainly was disconcerted by the question, but finally replied in a low voice that his salary for 1922 was $74,500, for 1921 was $42,000 and for 1919 was $35,000.

Mr. Wilkinson, who followed Mr. Cole also was subjected to inquiry as to his salary and likewise in a low voice said he was paid $32,000 last year, $27,500 the year previous and $18,000 in 1920 when he was Boston manager for the Standard of New York.

Financial operations of the Standard of New York were testified to before the manufactures committee by A. E. Hinch, controller of the corporation who estimated net earnings of the company since the supreme court dissolution decree at $253,817,550.

Mr. Wilkinson in replying to questions as to domestic business of the company said the Standard of New York controlled about half of the retail business in the territory which it covered. He declared emphatically that independent dealers were given the same right in purchase of gasoline from his company as dealers having the pumps and tanks furnished by the company.

JEALOUS MAN'S VICTIMS MAY DIE

(By The Associated Press.)
CEDAR RAPIDS, Iowa, Jan. 3.—Mrs. Barbara Abodeely and Samuel J. Kacere, who were assaulted by Mrs. Abodeely's husband with an axe last night, are in a critical condition tonight, each having received two fractures of the skull. Abodeely, who inflicted skull wounds on himself with the axe, is in a serious condition, but doctors said he would recover.

CALLS SPECIAL ELECTION FOR JUDGE

Springfield, Ill., Jan. 3.—Governor Small today issued a call for a special election to be held in the 16th district March 27 for the election of a successor to Circuit Judge Adam C. Cliffe who was appointed judge of the United States district court for the Northern district. The 16th district includes DeKalb, DePue, Kane and Kendall counties.

SCHOOL FOR DEAF WILL RE-OPEN TODAY

Pupils of the School for the Deaf are to arrive today after the Christmas holidays and the regular class room work will be resumed. A special car on the Alton will bring pupils from Chicago and there will be special groups on other roads.

The School for the Blind began the Christmas vacation several days later than was true of the School for the Deaf and work there is not to be resumed until Monday.

COMMON GROUND IS BEING SOUGHT IN CONTROVERSY

Operators Seek Some Plan to Present to the Miners

(By The Associated Press.)
CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—A plan upon which working conditions and wage agreements can be placed before the joint meeting of operators and miners from fifteen bituminous coal fields in the country was being sought tonight by a special committee of operators appointed after the joint meeting adjourned this afternoon and operators went into a separate meeting in an effort to agree upon a constructive plan.

The committee was instructed to formulate a plan from discussions of the meeting and report to the operators tomorrow morning who will meet one hour prior to the resumption of the joint conference at 10 A. M.

The plan will be different from any submitted before to the miners is indicated by the operators who said that John Lewis, president of the miners had made it clear that the district plan of settlement, sliding scale and arbitration, submitted at a special reorganization committee meeting here in December and rejected would not be considered at this meeting.

It is the opinion of numerous operators that little difficulty would be encountered in reaching an agreement along the lines of the old central competitive field, taking in western Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana and Illinois, were it not for federal indictments which one operator asserted were hanging over the heads of at least half the operators present.

The proposal that a special committee go before the finding commission and ask for the attitude of the commission and the administration as to resumption of negotiations along this line was met with much opposition on the part of operators who declared such a move might be interpreted as favoring interference by the government.

Lewis refused to comment on the discussions of the joint conference until the resumption of the joint conference tomorrow say he did not want to prejudice any plan the operators might decide upon submitting to the miners.

STORM TOSSED LINERS IN PORT

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Four storm tossed liners entered New York harbor today all late and all carrying stories of fierce battles with gales that have been blowing for almost three weeks. The Rochambeau had the hardest fight. Two days overdue she fought the storm which at times reared waves fifty feet high. As she battled slowly ahead, French concert singers, men and women sang almost continuously to quiet the fears of panic-stricken passengers, battered below decks.

Three Fabre liners arrived at once from different parts of Europe.

The Canada from Constantinople was tossed about for days, she reported making the trip a difficult one for 330 Russian refugees, some of whom were said to be noble women. A steamer from Lisbon and the Providence from Marseilles also reported heavy gales.

CARMAN HELD WITHOUT BAIL

(By The Associated Press.)
NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Frank U. Carman, former actor companion of the wealthy and host at the New Year's Eve party at which Mrs. C. P. Hugo Schoelkopf, of Buffalo claims to have been robbed of jewels valued at $500,000 today was held without bail charged with having aided two men, as yet unnamed, in committing grand larceny. He will be examined Friday.

The police after a search of the Carman's apartment where the party was held, declared they had discovered a possible clue and that they were hunting for two men, residents of the apartment below Carman's, in which Mrs. Schoelkopf said she had been robbed. This apartment which Carman had taken over from Fanny Brice, actress wife of Nicky Arnstein, was sublet, according to the police on December 8, to three actors.

HIGH SCHOOL PUPILS BOXING FOR FINALS

The semester examinations at the local high school will be held Jan. 17, 18 and 19. The first two days will be devoted to the regular schedule, double periods being allowed for each subject. Friday forenoon will be used for conflict exams, and Friday afternoon and Saturday the teachers will be busy grading papers. The second semester begins Monday morning, Jan. 28.

TESTIFY ARMED GUARDS CAUSED HERRIN KILLINGS

Uphold Contention of Defense They Were Responsible

(By The Associated Press.)
MARION, Ill., Jan. 3.—Fifteen witnesses were called to the stand by the defense today at the trial of five men charged with murder in connection with the Herrin riots to bear out its contention that the killing of twenty non-union workers directly resulted from the "invasion" of Williamson county by armed mine guards.

Highway robbery, the terrorizing of the surrounding countryside and the holding up and searching of travelers along the public highway were some of the charges made against the guards by witnesses who described events from the coming of the guards early in June up to the start of the riots the afternoon of June 22, the day three union miners were killed.

Luan Tucker, who said he had been a miner for 23 years and as a member of the union said he had gone about the middle of June to the Lester "strip" mine where the trouble started to collect a bill. He declared that an armed guard escorted him to C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the mine and one of the first men killed during the rioting.

"McDowell asked me if I was a 'spy' and I told him I was 'not' he testified. 'He also asked me what the union men were saying about the re-opening of the mine and I told him I did not know. Then he said he was going to work the mine, union or non-union, if he had to work it in blood and told me to notify the union men to keep away if they did not want to get shot.'"

W. A. Barton, a salesman and former mine union official, testified he had visited the mine and had been held up by an armed guard who cursed him. He said he was taken to the mine office where he had a talk with McDowell and W. J. Lester, who then owned the property.

"Lester said the mine was operating under difficulties and I asked him whether he approved the attitude of the guards," the witness said. "Lester said the guards were a 'bunch of rough-necks' but would get down to earth soon. I told him they had been terrorizing the citizenry would not tolerate them."

"I asked him what he was going to do with the guns and he said:

"It's best to prepare for war in times of peace," and I replied that it looked as if he were inviting war and that I did not think he could get away with it."

"Lester showed me a gun and said it was a machine gun and would shoot 1,500 shots a minute. I said he could kill every one in the county with a gun like that. Lester also said that he had been making preparations to operate the mine for more than a year."

THE DAY'S EVENTS IN WASHINGTON

(By The Associated Press.)
American representation on the reparations commission was proposed in a resolution offered by Senator Robinson, Democrat, Arkansas.

President Harding vetoed the Bursum bill providing increased pensions for veterans of the civil and Mexican wars and their widows.

Construction of federal buildings in 146 cities at a cost of $40,000,000 was recommended in a report transmitted to congress by Secretary Mellon and Postmaster General Work.

Government aid provisions of the shipping bill were attacked by Senator Sheppard, Democrat, Texas, after the senate in session after a new year's recess resumed consideration of the measure.

Enactment of a flexible immigration law which would permit the entry of desirable aliens to relieve labor shortage was advanced before the house immigration committee by representatives of merchant tailors.

Ambassador Harvey, back from London to report on various phases of the European situation remained in seclusion at the white house as a guest of the president except for a conference with Secretary Hughes at the state department.

Minus the customary provision of $350,000 for congressional distribution of free seed the agriculture department appropriation bill was passed by the house which later in the day also passed the supply bills for the interior and postoffice department.

Investigation of charges made recently in the house by Representative Upshaw, Democrat, Georgia, that certain high government officials did not practice the prohibition enforcement "which they preach" was proposed in a resolution by Representative Mill, Republican, Maryland.

A THOUGHT
Thou crownest the year with thy goodness.—Psalm 65:11.

In your occupations try to possess your soul in peace. It is not a good plan to be in haste to perform any action that it may be the sooner over. On the contrary, you should accustom yourself to do whatever you have to do with tranquility, in order that you may retain the possession of yourself, and of settled peace.—Madame Guyon.

Mr. Ford says that satisfactory times will come when a job is provided for every able-bodied man. But he should take into account the fact that some able-bodied men are not looking for jobs.

David Shanahan, chosen as speaker of the Illinois general assembly is thoroughly versed in the duties of that important office, as he held it for a period of years. It is fortunate indeed that the assembly did not get into a deadlock in choosing a speaker and thus waste hours and days of time sure to result in hurried sessions later on.

Mr. Shanahan as speaker has an established reputation of giving a fair deal to various factions, and no doubt in the present assembly his actions will sustain that reputation.

Women residents on West College avenue who have volunteered to serve as traffic policemen on that thoroughfare will perform a worth while public service. With residents clothed with police powers located at various points along this beautifully paved highway, there should not be very much trouble with traffic law violators.

The big gift campaign is ended and must be written down as a great success. The coupon system gave stimulation to buying and has been noticeably effective in the matter of collections. The very widespread interests in this campaign maintained throughout the weeks, to onlookers has afforded an interesting study of human nature. While of the thousands of people who participated only a few hundred were rewarded with gifts, the great majority will look on the results philosophically, realizing that they received full value for the money spent, even though not recipients of special gifts.

JACKSONVILLE JOINS.
The Springfield Journal makes the following complimentary editorial comment on Jacksonville: Jacksonville has joined the Illinois cities that are taking advantage of the state laws on planning and zoning. Its city council has passed an ordinance similar to Springfield's on this subject and Mayor Crabtree has appointed a very representative body of citizens as a planning and zoning commission.

A few years ago Jacksonville was on the rocks of despair. It was all but a ruined municipality, without funds, without water, without light, without streets that were fit to travel. Instead of hope there was woe.

In four or five years the aspect of things have changed. The city has built a new water system, having now ample resources in reservoir and mechanical equipment. It has repaid its arrears. It has paid its debts and unraveled many of its financial tangles. The city today looks to the future. That is the greatest sign of encouragement that any city can offer. Planning and zoning are works of the future. They affect the future and have little concern with the present.

Those cities of the state which have undertaken this task will welcome Jacksonville with its new spirit of enterprise and reinvigoration.

I had heard of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and often saw it advertised in different papers. I decided to try it and I had finished the fourth bottle I was much better, the weakness stopped and the severe pains in my sides left me. I am now much stronger and do my own work and work in the factory besides. I am still taking the Vegetable Compound and give it all the praise."—Mrs. NELLIE QUILLON, 17 Morris St., Muskegon, Mich.

IN matters intellectual she's somewhat ineffectual,
She's more or less a dumb-bell, as it were,
Her talk is sheer insanity, her head is full of vanity,
And yet you like to run around with her.
Her cookery's deplorable, but, oh, her smile's adorable,
And there's a wondrous magic in her glance;
She's lacking in ability or any true utility,
But she's a floating feather in a dance!

SHE doesn't toll or spin at all or aid her married kin at all,
She doesn't help her mother or her dad,
It keeps those parents hurrying and figuring and worrying
To earn the dainty garb in which she's clad;
But when they see the pep of her, the grace in every step of her,
Her loveliness, her airy-fairy style,
They cannot view her fretfully; and somehow unregretfully
They feel each cent they've spent is worth the while!

THE butterfly is glorious, you don't become censorious
Because it doesn't labor at a task;
Perhaps it is undutiful, but if it's gay and beautiful,
That's just about as much as you can ask.
And when a girl is kissable, with prettiness unmissable,
Why moan because she isn't keen and wise?
We should assume an attitude of undiluted gratitude
That such a lovely picture greets our eyes!

WINCHESTER GIRL TO BECOME BRIDE TODAY
Miss Jewell Hainsfurther and Norman Landauer of Davenport, Iowa, to Wed in St. Louis Today—Other Winchester News

Winchester, Jan. 3.—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hainsfurther and daughters, Misses Jewell and Bess Louise and son Albert, Jr., left Wednesday afternoon for St. Louis, where Miss Jewell is to wed Mr. Norman Landauer of Davenport, Iowa.

The wedding will occur Thursday afternoon at the Jefferson hotel, the ceremony being performed by Rabbi Leon Harrison. Only members of the immediate families of the two young people will be present.

Miss Hainsfurther is one of Winchester's most popular young women, having resided here all her life. She graduated from the Winchester high school and later attended school for one year at Milwaukee, Wis. She has been a general favorite in the younger social circles of the community.

Mr. Landauer is a prominent young business man of Davenport and is a young man of estimable character. He and his bride will have the best wishes of their many friends.

News Notes
Dr. William O'Reilly returned Wednesday from Canton where he visited relatives and friends.

Miss Dorothea Sargent of Franklin was among the Jacksonville shoppers Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Miers of Ashland were Jacksonville visitors Wednesday.

James Holliday Lyons, a long time resident of this city died at his home 712 Sheridan street at 9:45 o'clock Wednesday night after a brief illness of pneumonia. Decedent was the son of Edmund and Elizabeth Dennis Lyons and was born in the state of Tennessee, January 5, 1849. He came to this state early in life and for many years was a resident of Virden. He was united in marriage in that city September 5, 1874 to Miss Alice Sturges. To this union six children were born. His wife and four children preceded him in death. One son, James Lyons of Springfield and one daughter, Mrs. Martha McElissie Andle of this city survive. He was again married in this city May 16, 1887 to Miss Elizabeth Sweet who also survives. He leaves two brothers, Robert of Centerville and Charles of Waverly and one sister, Mrs. Amanda Emery of Jacksonville.

Mr. Lyons was a member of the Methodist church and always lived faithful to the teachings of that denomination. During the later years of his life he was employed by the Washab railroad.

Funeral services will be held from the residence Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Burial will be in Jacksonville cemetery.

NEW STATE MILK LAW EFFECTIVE
Provisions of Illinois Statute Are Important to Dealers and the Public.

A new law governing the sale of milk in Illinois became effective on January 1, and milk producers and dealers, either wholesale or retail, will do well to familiarize themselves with the provisions of this law since it carries heavy penalties and will be strictly enforced thru the state and city health departments, working in co-operation with the state inspectors and the police department.

The new law was passed by the last legislature and was made effective as of January 1. One of the provisions is that all bottles and containers in which milk is sold must have the imprint of the trademark or name of the manufacturer and no bottles or containers may be purchased after January 1 for use in the milk business unless so labeled. Bottles and containers now in use may be continued until they break or are worn out.

Another provision is that all retailers must have their wagons and other delivery facilities plainly marked with their name and address.

SEEK COURT REVIEW ON ROLANDO WILL
James Finch as Executor In Doubt as to Certain Trust Provisions—Part of the Property in Illinois and Part in California.

In the office of Circuit Clerk Wanamaker a bill was filed yesterday by James Finch as executor of the will of Elizabeth Simpson Rolando, directed against Joseph Rolando, et al., asking for a construction of the will of the late Elizabeth Simpson Rolando.

The suit was brought by D. J. Staley on behalf of the complainant. The other defendants in addition to Mr. Rolando are Ada Simpson Rousey, T. T. Simpson and the Society for the Education of Young Women in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Rolando died June 3, 1921, in San Francisco, leaving a will dated April 15, which was admitted to probate in San Francisco on the 27th day of July, 1921. A month later a transcript of the will and proceedings was filed in the probate court of Morgan county, and ancillary letters testamentary were ordered to issue to James Finch, who is now asking for a construction of the will because the trust involved is vague and confused.

Mrs. Rolando in her will bequeathed $500 to her husband, Joseph Rolando, and $800 to her sister, Ada Simpson Rousey. It is indicated that the executor is in doubt as to whether these bequests are authorized to be paid out of the money which the testatrix had invested in Illinois at the time she executed the will. The same question applies to $100 annuity for which Mrs. Rolando made provision to be paid to her father, T. T. Simpson.

Further, the executor is in doubt as to whether the testatrix meant to bequeath an additional $125 to the Education society or to satisfy a note for that amount held by the society.

Further Mr. Finch asked for a construction of the following provision of the will:

"All funeral expenses and personal debts are to be deducted from the money which I have now invested in Illinois. At the end of five years, James Finch, Jacksonville, Ill., shall invest this money, together with interest on it, in a home for my sister, Ada Simpson, this is her sole property, held by her her lifetime and then to be equally divided among her children. She cannot dispose of it, but holds it in trust for her children. She may have her choice as to the location of her home, providing the cost of the home does not exceed the money now invested."

He indicates that he is in doubt as to whether he as executor is authorized to invest the money now invested in Illinois at the end of the five years next following the death of the testatrix, or at the end of five years next following the closing of the estate of the testatrix.

WHEN FIRE ALARMS ARE GIVEN
Mrs. Allie Points, an operator in the Illinois Telephone Co. office gave the call to the fire department Tuesday night for the fire on Cox street. Mrs. Points knew the location of the fire and the error of the department in sending equipment to Park street instead of to Cox street was not the fault of the telephone operator.

Under the present system, when a fire alarm is received at the telephone office the operator first communicates it to the fire department then to the home of Chief of Department Hunt and then to the municipal light plant. Immediately afterward the message is sent to each group of call firemen. The operator assigned to this task works quickly and the same message is transmitted on each call.

ANNUAL MEETING OF BAPTISTS IS HELD
Two Hundred Members of First Baptist Church Gather For Supper and Business Session—Officers for 1923 Are Named and Reports Show Church in Fine Condition.

The annual meeting of the First Baptist church, at which officers were elected for the ensuing year, was held Wednesday evening in the church parlors. It was preceded by a cafeteria supper served by the Blues, the losing side in the recent calling campaign. Nearly two hundred members of the church were in attendance.

The pastor, Rev. A. P. Howells, presided as moderator during the business session. Reports were heard from the various officers and departments. The church treasurer, C. H. Story, reported receipts for the year of $7,016.06 and expenditures of $6,408.53, giving a balance of over $600 in the treasury. The church has collected over $1,900 for missions during the year.

Alexander Rahjohns reporting as chairman of trustees of the Sunday school building fund, showed a total of $3,772.67 in the fund to date, and an increase during 1922 of $762.68. Miss Elizabeth Long, reporting for the Baptist Women's Union, gave a resume of the year's work. This organization has sent to the Hudson Baptist Orphanage 56 pairs of shoes, 12 pairs of stockings, 61 pairs of socks, and 51 pairs of gloves. It has also contributed four quarts of fruit to Passavant hospital. There is a balance in its treasury of $126.64.

Miss Edith Stewart reported for the Helen Rawlings chapter of the World Wide Guild, showing a balance of $18.97 in the treasury. The secretary of the Sunday school, George Bussey, reported an average attendance for the year of 244, as compared with 241 during 1921. The treasurer of the school, J. W. Chipchase, reported a balance on hand of $115.82.

An interesting report was given by what is known as the Ready Makers for Christ class, of which Mrs. C. O. Swift is the teacher. This class has adopted an orphan girl at the Hudson Home, and has presented her with a complete outfit of clothing during the year. The class gave the little girl a Christmas treat, and it is their intention to have her visit Jacksonville next summer. The class has a membership of eighteen young ladies. The home department of the Sunday school has an enrollment of sixty-four for Sunday school in the afternoon, reported an average attendance of 54, with a balance in the treasury of $15.48.

The Senior B. Y. P. U. reported good interest and attention throughout the year, and money in the treasury. The Intermediate organization, thru its secretary, Miss Lorraine Fory, reported good progress.

Mrs. Gertrude Richardson, who has been for eighteen years superintendent of the Sunday school, cradle roll, stated that eighteen members had been added during the year. She referred to young people in the Sunday school who had been on her roll at the beginning of her work, and who are now active workers in the school.

Officers Elected
The final feature of the evening program was the election of officers, as recommended by the advisory board of the church, the election resulting as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Joe Peters made a business trip to Jacksonville from Mercedosla yesterday.

LITERBERRY S. S. ELECTED OFFICERS
Baptist Sunday School Names Officers for Ensuing Year—Other News From Literberry.

Literberry, Jan. 3.—The Baptist Sunday school elected officers for the year on Sunday morning:
Superintendent—J. E. Underbrink.
Assistant—C. A. Beavers.
Secretary—Treasurer—Mrs. Earl Rexroat.
Superintendent of Cradle Roll—Mrs. John Guy.
Mrs. Mary Beavers is sick. Dr. Obermeyer was called to see her on Sunday. Mrs. S. H. Crum is staying with Mrs. Beavers.

Delbert Guy, who has been taking a Christmas holiday in Literberry, returned to his home in Ravine, Wis., Tuesday. Young Mr. Guy is working in the Lithograph Press Co. of Racine and is well pleased with his place and likes his work. He brought several samples with him and it is nice work. Some of it is very attractive, pretty designs and bright colors.

The Literberry people were well pleased with the play given at the Baptist church in connection with the oyster supper on Saturday night.

The Literberry Baptist Mission Circle held a business meeting on Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. J. A. Lier. The following officers were elected:
President—Mrs. Edgar Gottschall.
Vice President—Mrs. Warren Daniels.
Secretary—Mrs. C. A. Beavers.
Treasurer—Mrs. J. A. Lier.
Chairman of Reading Contest—Mrs. D. K. McCarty.
Mrs. Guy is the associational director of Morgan-Scott.

The society will send an offering to the board of Home and Foreign Missions about the middle of January.

Mrs. Lier served refreshments of the best, and was assisted by Miss Mildred Underbrink. The dues paid at this meeting, $2.00. The meeting closed by repeating Psalm 2-8.

PUBLIC SCHOOLS OPENED YESTERDAY

Attendance Is About Normal—Colleges and State School for Deaf Also Start This Week.

The Jacksonville public school opened yesterday after a holiday recess of almost two weeks. The attendance at the different ward schools, high school and junior high school as about normal and few students failed to report at school because of illness or for other reasons. Nearly all of the high school teachers spent Christmas and the holidays at their homes in different parts of the country, and returned yesterday to resume their duties.

The colleges will open today. Illinois college will begin with regular classes this noon and students are arriving in the city after the Christmas vacation spent at their homes. The Woman's college will hold the first chapel exercises of 1923 this morning and classes will be resumed as usual.

The Illinois school for the deaf and the school for the blind will also reconvene this week after a holiday recess of two weeks. The children will return to Jacksonville today after spending their vacations at their homes in different parts of the state. The regular class work and school routine will be commenced on Friday.

January 17 and 18 have been announced by Superintendent B. F. Shafer of the public schools, as the dates for final semester examinations at the high school. Examinations will be given in the ward schools and David Prince school during the same week as they are conducted at the high school, and the second semester will begin the week of January 22.

OLD JACKSONVILLE

THE BIG FIRE

(BY ENSLEY MOORE)
Member Illinois State Historical Society

The conflagration of last Friday night was one of the most impressive that has ever visited our city.

The Strawn Building at the south west corner of South Main and the Square has been erroneously spoken of as being built in 1867.

One day in July or August, 1859, the writer stood on South Main street and saw the splendid foundation, the like of which had never been seen before—being down, or in, or through it laid, setting all the next winter, and the super-structure was built upon it in 1860. W. C. Woodman opened a dry goods store, where Gilbert's drug store was, last week. Col. Jesse Newman opened the middle building as a grocery store, before he mounted his horse and went to the War with the 101st.

Perhaps Yates, Smith and Christian, from Springfield opened the west room.

The Hall was not opened until February, 1861, just before the Civil War began, and the Berger Family of Bell Ringers had the honor of packing the house that night.

Sol Smith Russell married one of the Berger girls, later on, after he had been a drummer boy in the Grand Army of the West.

The Hall was only plastered at first, the coloring being put on some time after opening, then Col. John J. Hardin's portrait was an ornament, and monument of remembrance with that of Mr. Strawn.

The latter deserved high honor for he had given us probably the best Hall in the State, at that time, outside of Chicago. In it Commencements of Illinois College, the Female Academy, the M. C. Female College, and the Young Ladies' Atheneum, and Junior Exhibitions of "Illinois" were held there for years.

About 1869, as the writer recalls "Young Jacob" Strawn probably became proprietor of the Hall, and added stage features, with scenery and so on, and it became known as

"Strawn's Opera House"

Later it became the Armory, as it has been of late.

A fire, singularly enough, starting first in the east "Marble Block" store, extended to the Strawn building and seriously damaged and impaired Strawn's property—some time in the '80's perhaps. The Old Hall Saw Great Things.

too numerous to recall or mention.

When Gov. Yates came home as a Senator-elect of the United States he was acclaimed as such in Strawn's Hall.

When Chaplain McCabe roused our people by his magic voice and songs his first effort was made, with William Reynolds, of Peoria, and Marshall P. Ayers as helpers, and the work only ended when Morgan had contributed $22,000 to the Christian Commission to help on sick and wounded soldiers. Thousands of our people have gathered in that well conceived and constructed building.

And it was only fitting that it should still be held by Strawn's. This time by Gates and Dr. David.

In February of 1868.

Charles Sumner greeted our people there, as Anna E. Dickinson did, several times.

John B. Gough shook even that firm building by the applause he won there, several times.

Vice President Colfax spoke there in 1874, just as the Greatest War Governor.

Yates, did time and again; notably when our own 101st regiment was welcomed back in 1865.

The building was utilized as

A House of Worship by L. M. Glover, and his First Presbyterians in 1861 to 1867, after the first church had been burned, on the present site of the Journal, in December, 1861.

There, in 1870, A. A. Paxson delivered a history of Phi Alpha Society. Commencement afternoon; and there, in June, 1871, Newton Bateman delivered the Address; Henry M. Post of St. Louis, the Poem, and Ensley Moore, the Address—Historical of Sigma Pi Society, as he had made his Commencement speech there, June 4, 1868.

It is then wonderful, that last Saturday he gazed, almost with tears, on the ruins of the stately, fine and historic meeting place which

Jacob Strawn had so handsomely given to our community.

It stands in our history with Independence Hall, Philadelphia, or the "The Old" State House in Springfield, where the voices of Lincoln and Douglas shook the nation by their patriotic utterances.

RUPTURE OF NEAR EAST CONFERENCE IS BARELY AVOIDED

Predicted That Parley Will End Today Without Result

(By The Associated Press)

PARIS, Jan. 3.—Rupture of the premier's conference with all its disastrous possibilities for Europe and the Near East, was barely avoided today by a recess until tomorrow when the unfinished declaration by Premier Bonar Law in reply to Premier Poincaré and Theunis will be completed and Marquis Della Torretta will have a formal opportunity to state the Italian government's position. The conference in the judgment of both French and British delegates probably will end tomorrow without an agreement thus breaking up unity among the allied governments upon which the policies of all the principal western powers are based.

There is much dismay and anxiety over the situation. The British and French views are irreconcilable as they stand now.

Mr. Bonar Law is regarded by the French as personally desirous of doing all he reasonably can to prevent a break but since the publication of the British plan he is thought to be limited absolutely by his own propositions which in the view of the French were prepared by officials of the British treasury in cooperation with Sir

John Bradbury member of the reparations commission and Lord D'Albany, British ambassador to Germany.

The British premier therefore finds it well nigh impossible to accept as a basis of discussion either the French or Italian plans, without taking into consideration the British plan from which they differ so radically.

There is no reason to draw a favorable deduction from a continuation of the conference tomorrow, it was declared late tonight by a high official of the French foreign office. The British delegation have equally abandoned hope of an accord on reparations after today's developments.

M. Poincaré's plain refusal even to accept the British plan as material for discussion with the French plan virtually has brought the conference to an end in the view of the British representatives.

Take More Cheerful View

Premier Theunis and Foreign Minister Jasper and their associates in the Belgian delegation took a more cheerful view of the day's events, because Mr. Bonar Law abandoned that part of the British plan setting aside Belgium's priority.

Under no circumstances will Belgium renounce the right she won by her heroic stand during the war and by the allies' unanimous consent after the Armistice said M. Theunis with deep emotion.

Amid a dramatic silence Mr. Bonar Law said in a matter of fact way:

"Very well, we yield. But we were under the impression that Belgium was prepared to make concessions."

"Belgium has reached the limits of her concessions; perhaps Germany might be called upon to make some effort," M. Theunis replied, and for a moment the atmosphere of the conference was heavily charged. But Marquis Della Torretta relieved the tension by suggesting that tea be served.

No mention was made during the meeting of German proposals. American officials in Paris are following the conference closely and are keeping in constant touch with the foreign office and other official source. Some British observers regard the British plan as being partly American in character.

Referring to the state highway police, the governor said:

"This force has been very active in stopping the abuse of roads by over-loaded trucks which I am convinced, it would be disastrous to increase their weight beyond prescribed law. Any legislation should be directed toward strengthening the authority of these officers, for only by rigid enforcement can our investment in highways be observed."

Any legislation toward revision of the present scale of motor fees should be directed not at the average passenger vehicle, but more equitably toward the heavy truck, inasmuch as a very substantial part of the cost of pavements is due to the necessity of providing permanency of the investment of the people, Governor Small declared, pointing to the large increase in revenues from this source.

Marks Creates Stir.

Other house proceedings were routine. Adolphus Marks, Chicago, Republican created a stir in the senate proceedings when Senator Denvir, Democrat, Chicago, attempted to prevent Marks from taking his seat. Senator Denvir presented a resolution charging fraud in the action of the state canvassing board which awarded a seat to Marks, after they had canvassed the election returns in which Norman G. McPherson, Chicago, was elected.

Senator John Dailey of Peoria brought the situation to a climax when he declared the presentation of the resolution out of order as the senate members had not been sworn. Lieutenant Governor Fred E. Sterling, Rockford, sustained the point of order and Senator Denvir declared he would carry his message to the people.

Formal charges against the state canvassing board were prepared by Thomas F. Donovan, Joliet, chairman of the state Democratic committee and were filed with the secretary of state. The charges among a number of specifications claim the board of which Governor Small is chairman, willfully, illegally and with wicked intent and purpose conspired to "deprive the said McPherson of his seat in the senate to which he was lawfully elected."

Charges Principal Topic.

The charges were the principal topic of conversation here tonight. The vote to seat Marks was made by Governor Small, Treasurer E. E. Miller and State Auditor Russell. The remaining two members, Secretary of State Emmerson and Attorney General Brundage voted with McPherson.

A canvass of the election of state officials will take place tomorrow morning after which it is expected that an adjournment will be taken.

The reading of Governor Small's message occupied about three hours. It is one of the most voluminous ever submitted in the history of the state veteran legislators said.

All members of the house were present at roll call with the exception of Charles Stubbles of Peoria, who is ill. Remarks by Temporary Flagg indicated the sympathy of the house, and regrets were expressed over the death of former Representative Charles Baldwin, who was a member for nearly 25 years.

Chief Justice Thompson administered the oath to all members.

Peaceful War at Irish Consulate

Peaceful and bloodless arguments characterized the clash between Free State and Irish Republican representatives in their battle for control of the Irish consulate offices in New York. Above are shown Republicans "sitting out" the Free Staters. Left to right, Mrs. Muriel McSwiney, widow of the late mayor of Cork, Mrs. Gertrude Carles and J. V. Carrall, Republican guard.

Otis Alexander testified he was a night watchman at a mine near the Lester property and had overheard two telephone conversations between McDowell and Lester the nights of June 20 and June 21 by listening in on a party line.

"The first night Lester said to McDowell that he had heard 200 men were coming from West Frankfort and 100 from Johnston City to attack the mine," the witness said.

"'Alright,' McDowell replied. 'We're ready for them. I don't think they will get here.'"

"The night of the first shooting at the mine I heard Lester talk to McDowell again and tell him to hoist the white flag and get in touch with the union officials to negotiate an agreement which would give him time to fortify his men. Lester added that he would try to get troops to the mine."

In testifying regarding the actual shooting at the mine, Tucker testified that he was at Green-shaw Crossing, a short distance from the pit the afternoon of June 21 and saw a man carry a "big gun" to the top of the mine dump where it was hidden behind a bush. He said that a few moments later he heard the sound of shooting from the direction of the hidden gun and saw Jody Henderson the first of the three union miners killed that afternoon, fall with a bullet thru his neck.

"Was there any shooting from the outside of the mine up to that time?" he was asked.

"I did not see any."

comes off readily. Clean the feet and head first. After the hair is removed as thoroughly as possible with a hog scraper, hang the hog upon a gambrel stick inserted thru the tendons of the hind pasterns just so the head clears the ground. Pour hot water over the carcass and halve it with a sharp knife. Then pour a bucket of cold water over it.

In dressing, begin between the hams and cut down to the pelvic bone. Then split down the middle of the belly as far as the breast bone, taking care not to cut too deeply and into the guts. Next cut thru the exact center of the pelvic bone, being careful not to cut the bung just beneath Pull down and out on the penis or uterus while cutting around the bung. Then the intestines, liver and stomach may be removed without much difficulty. Next split the breast bone by inserting the knife a little to one side of the center and cutting downward. Remove the heart, lungs, gullet, and wind pipe. Examine the internal organs and the glands of the neck. If any of them contains little pockets of pus it is an indication of tuberculosis and the carcass should be discarded for human food. It may be thoroughly cooked and fed to the hogs or poultry. Hog cholera is distinguished most easily in live animal. In the carcass cholera is indicated by very small blue spots on the skin, purple neck glands, liver colored lungs and many small blood spots the size of a pin head in various parts of the body, especially in the intestines. Such carcasses and their offal should be burned immediately.

Tear loose the leaf lard from the sides of the carcass while it is still warm. Wash thoroughly the inside of the carcass with cold water and allow the carcass to cool over night. Do not let it freeze, however, until the animal heat has gotten out or the meat will spoil around the bones.

Miss B. Aiken Tells How Cuticura Healed Eczema

"When I was about fourteen years of age my face, arms and scalp broke out with eczema. It started with little pimples and blisters which spread rapidly. I could not stand any clothing on my arms, and my face was disfigured. My scalp itched and burned so that I could not sleep, and my hair became dry and fell out in handfuls."

"I read an advertisement for Cuticura Soap and Ointment and sent for a sample. It helped me so I purchased more, and after using three cakes of Soap and three boxes of Ointment I was healed." (Signed) Miss Burniss Aiken, Lyndon, Kansas.

Daily use of Cuticura Soap, Ointment and Talcum helps to prevent skin troubles.

Ruddy Cheeks—Sparkling Eyes—Most Women Can Have

Says Dr. Edwards, a Well-Known Ohio Physician

Dr. F. M. Edwards for 17 years treated scores of women for liver and bowel ailments. During these years he gave to his patients a prescription made of a few well-known vegetable ingredients mixed with olive oil, naming them Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. You will know them by their olive color.

These tablets are wonder-workers on the liver and bowels, which cause a normal action, carrying off the waste and poisonous matter in one's system.

If you have a pale face, yellow look, dull eyes, pimples, coated tongue, headaches, a listless, no-good feeling, all out of sorts, inactive bowels, you take one of Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets nightly for a time and note the pleasing results.

Thousands of women and men take Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets—the successful substitute for calomel—now and then just to keep them fit. 15c and 30c.

NEW GIFT TO L. W. C. MEMORIAL RECEIVED

The latest gift to Amy B. Motherhead library memorial at Illinois Woman's college is the sum of $75, received this week from Mrs. H. B. Lusch of Chicago, sister of the late dean. It is the plan of the college to increase the memorial to at least $2,500.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

The Home Slaughter of Pork.

It is comparatively easy to dress a hog on the farm although many farmers feel that it is a task for a skilled butcher. However, after a little practice and with a small amount of equipment it is not much more difficult than dressing a chicken or turkey. On most farms it will pay to butcher at least twice during the winter rather than doing it all at once. This will supply fresh meat during a large part of the winter while the hams, bacon and other cured cuts from the first butchering may be given a mild, more palatable cure as there will be little danger of them spoiling if they are kept in a cool place. A stronger cure should be given to meat from later butchering if it is to be kept during warm weather as it may spoil otherwise. Obviously the stronger the cure used the drier, saltier, and less palatable will the meat be. It is now time for the first butchering. Another may take place in February or March.

Select a smooth barrow or open gilt which is not too fat unless considerable lard is desired. Hogs weighing 200 to 225 pounds are desirable for home consumption as they will supply considerable lard and the meat will not be too fat. The hog may be killed with a sledge, axe, or rifle shot but it is preferable when one has had experience in sticking to have one hold the hog on his back while another sticks him without previous stunning as the hog will bleed better. In sticking, insert an eight inch knife, edge down into the middle line of the throat, three inches in front of the breast bone. Run the knife slightly under the bone and out toward the head, severing the veins and arteries. Avoid getting the knife out of the middle line, as it will probably stick the shoulder and necessitate considerable loss by trimming.

The best method of scalding, especially when several hogs are to be butchered is to set a small galvanized tank upon bricks or over a shallow pit so that a fire may be built under it and the water heated directly. The water should not be too hot. Dip your hand into it three times in rapid succession. If the third time it is uncomfortably hot, the water is the correct temperature. A scalding platform is set alongside the tank and the hog is rolled off the platform into the water and onto a rope, the ends of which are fastened about three feet apart to the platform. The hog should be rolled about and removed from time to time to see if the hair

FINAL HOUR IN GIFT CAMPAIGN BRINGS THOUSANDS HERE

Paige Car Goes to Beardstown Man—Ford Car to Local Resident—Many of Smaller Gifts to Local People—County People and Residents of Other Towns Get Share

The question, "Who will get the Paige," which has been constantly heard all over Jacksonville for the past seven weeks, was answered yesterday afternoon at 2:55 o'clock when the F. W. Meyer Company of Beardstown was announced as the recipient of the grand gift of the Jacksonville Merchants' Gift Campaign. The Paige, purchased at a cost of $2,500, has been on display in front of the Gift Room for the past weeks and has been the object of many an appraising glance, and an oft repeated "Gee, I'd sure like to get it!"

Crowds of men, women and children thronged the streets at the northwest corner of the square at 1 o'clock, the time set for the distribution of gifts to begin. The windows in the buildings overlooking this part of the square were filled with interested faces and all over town the one subject of conversation was the distribution of gifts, the culmination of the Jacksonville merchants' gift campaign.

Before the distribution began, Louis L. Horen, chairman of the gift campaign committee, made a short speech of welcome to the crowd. The big drum, driven by a tractor engine, then began to go around and the work of taking out the coupons began. Blindfolded children worked all afternoon, taking a coupon out of the drum and a capsule out of the glass jar. The capsule contained the name of the article to be given away and the person whose coupon was taken out at the same time as the capsule received the gift named in the capsule.

J. L. Henry acted as chairman of the distribution and he called out the names of the recipients of the gifts. In spite of the cold, the crowd stood during the three hours required to complete the work, and remained intensely interested until the last coupon had been taken out of the drum at four o'clock. The excitement of the crowd was tense until after the Paige, the most important gift on the list had been awarded to F. W. Meyer Company in Beardstown. Many of the gifts went to people living outside of Jacksonville and everyone felt satisfied that the affair had been conducted in a most fair and unbiased manner.

The seven weeks during which the Gift Campaign has been conducted have been the greatest trade weeks that Jacksonville has ever known. It is estimated that about 1,000,000 coupons have been distributed during this period. This represents one million dollars worth of business in Jacksonville since the beginning of the campaign, and of course outstrips any previous trade records ever made in the city. Merchants in Jacksonville reported that Tuesday and Wednesday were the largest days for the collection of bills in the history of the city.

BETTER POSTAL FACILITIES FOR JACKSONVILLE

Recommended $75,000 for Addition to Building

According to Associated Press
despatches from Washington yesterday, Jacksonville is listed in the cities that have been recommended by secretary Mellon and Postmaster Work for the building of additional space for postoffice business. The amount set aside for this city is $75,000.

The recommendation to congress carries a proposed expenditure of over $40,000,000 throughout the country and includes all of the larger cities. In addition to Jacksonville other cities outside Cook county in Illinois where appropriations are suggested are:
Rockford, $500,000; Aurora,
$300,000; Belleville, $125,000; Bloomington, $375,000; Champaign, $135,000; Decatur, $150,
000; Ottawa, $50,000; Streator, $30,000.

The local postoffice building was erected at a cost of about $60,000. By the time it was completed the postal business had outgrown it and each year the force has become more cramped for space. In recent years the business has grown so rapidly that additional space is imperatively needed. The story from Washington follows.

More Working Space Needed.
Washington, Jan. 3. — Attention of congress was called today to the urgent need of providing additional working space for government activities in 140 cities, based upon facts developed by a careful survey conducted by the treasury and postoffice departments during the past year.

The list of cities, calling for first consideration was transmitted to Speaker Gillett of the house by Secretary Mellon and Postmaster General Work. The postmaster general was reported in most need with the bureau of internal revenue and the veterans bureau next in the order named.
The cost of the work recommended was estimated at more than $40,000,000.

Twenty-five other cities including New York, Chicago, Philadelphia, Boston and Detroit were equally in need of more adequate facilities, the report said, but information as to conditions and methods of relief there will be submitted.

Causes of Congestion.
The growth of the parcel post service, development of the rural carrier service, collection of income taxes, enforcement of prohibition and the varied activities of the veterans bureau were cited as the principal causes of congestion, which had thrown into public corridors. The veterans bureau according to the report is paying $459,272 rent annually for commercial space.
"Even if it were prudent financially to relieve all this congestion in one year," said the report, signed jointly by Mr.
Mellon and Mr. Work, "it would be impracticable from an undertake so much at one time. It would therefore seem wise to map
out a program covering a period of years, relief to be provided first where congestion is greatest and where the government is paying out large sums for rent
of space in private buildings."

The survey was conducted in communities which have doubled
or tripled in population since federal buildings were provided and enlarged. Many were found to be lacking in floor space to such an extent that additional quarters had to be rented.

JAMES P. HEADLEY LONG PROMINENT IN HOME COUNTY

Brief mention was made recently of the sudden death of James P. Headley in Lexington, Ky. Some further facts concerning Mr.
Headley's death appear from the following paragraphs, taken from a Lexington paper:

"James Patterson Headley, 83
years old, died unexpectedly at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 431 West Second street.
Mr. Headley, who had been in his usual good health, had just returned from a business trip to Jacksonville, Ill. His death, which resulted from a paralytic stroke suffered three hours earlier, came as a shock to a wide circle of relatives and friends.

"Mr. Headley is survived by his wife, Mrs. Alice Withers Headley;
one son, James P. Headley, Jr.;
two grandchildren, Catherine Headley and Naomi Estill; two daughters, Mrs. Reese Browning and Mrs. Charles V. Johnson of Louisville, and several nieces and nephews.

"Mr. Headley, who was a prominent Fayette county farmer, was very active in spite of an accident suffered several years ago, which left him crippled. He directed personally his farm on the Russell Cave pike and his other interests.

"Funeral services will be held today at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Ida Withers Harrison, 528 Elm Tree Lane. The Rev.
Mark Corbin, in whose church Mr.
Headley has been an elder and an active worker for a number of years, will officiate. Pall bearers will be: Farris Headley, Will Headley, Charles V. Johnson,
Lewis Johnson, Alex Peck and W.
T. W. Hays."

CONTINUE BUSINESS

The Battery Service Co., 217
South Main, handling Prest-O-Lite Batteries and doing general
re-charging and repairing of batteries, will continue business
as usual, under the management of Mrs. A. F. Dowdall, owner.

Social Events

Sans Souci Club

Entertained by Hoppers

The Sans Souci club was entertained Tuesday evening by
Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hopper, 800
West North street, at a regular meeting and supper at which the annual business of the club was transacted. The officers for the past year were by vote continued for another year. An enjoyable social time concluded the evening.

Alumnae Society to Hold Monthly Luncheon

The local society of alumnae and former students of Illinois
Woman's College will be held at Peacock Inn at 12:15 p. m. Saturday. All who are eligible for membership are invited to attend,
as well as the present members.

Entertains Bridge Club

Miss Margaret Clampt of Diamond Court, entertained the members of her bridge club last evening at her home. Two tables were made up for cards
and the evening very delightfully spent in playing. At the close of the cards an attractive supper was served. The appointments for the affair were in keeping with the holiday season.

Luncheon for Mrs. Vickery

Mrs. C. E. Vickery, Jr., of Des Moines, Iowa, was the guest of honor at a charming luncheon
given at The Tea Tray yesterday by her mother, Mrs. E. S. Greenleaf. The guest list included only a few of Mrs. Vickery's Jacksonville friends. A delicious menu was served and the affair was a most delightful one in every way.

Mrs. Rose Will be Hostess

Mrs. John E. Rose will be the hostess at a delightful afternoon bridge party today at her home on West Lafayette avenue. The affair is in honor of Mrs. Henry Sechte of Granite City, and Mrs.
John D. Cain of Omaha, Neb., who are visiting in Jacksonville. The guests will include the members of the Tuesday bridge club which formerly met regularly in the city. Three tables will be made up for cards and the time spent in playing. An attractive luncheon will be served during the afternoon and dainty favors, suggestive of the new year season will be used.

CHURCH ORGANIZATIONS

Ladies' Aid of Westminster Meets.

The Ladies' Aid of Westminster church will meet this afternoon at 3 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Walton. A full attendance is desired.

Ebenezer Gleaners

Circle Held Meeting
The Gleaners circle of Ebenezer church held its regular meeting Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Lloyd Moss, with a good attendance. The members answered to roll call with conundrums. The minutes were then read and the regular business transacted, after which the following program was given:

Reading—Miss Elsie Cully.
Song, "Lead Kindly Light." Circle.
Vocal solo—Miss Ruth De-weese.

Following the program a pleasant social hour was spent and refreshments were served. Mrs.
Carl Martin and Miss Dorothy Houston were the assistant hostesses.

Catholic Ladies'

Aid to Meet.

The Ladies' Aid Society of Our Savior's church is to meet this afternoon at the Knights of Columbus Hall on East State street.
Mrs. W. H. Mason, the president of the society, and Mrs. Anton Graf will act as hostesses for the day. There will be the regular business session and this will be followed by cards. After the hours of playing are over, attractive refreshments will be passed.

MR. MEYER COMING

FOR PAIGE CAR TODAY

Beardstown Man Who Will Receive Merchants' Best Gift Voices His Appreciation.
Mr. and Mrs. Hal Meyers of Beardstown expect to come to Jacksonville this afternoon and Mr. Meyers will drive home in the Paige car which becomes his property as a part of the Jacksonville gift campaign.

Over the telephone last night
Mr. Meyers said that he could hardly realize his good fortune,
and that he feels mighty grateful to the merchants and residents of Jacksonville for the gift of this car, which is valued at $2500.

Mr. Meyers lives at 901 State street, Beardstown, and is manager of the Fourth street grocery store operated under the name of F. W. Meyers & Co. This same firm also has another grocery at Twelfth and Jefferson streets.

A brother, Walter Meyers, is the proprietor of the Meyers hotel in Beardstown.

Hal Meyers had acquired about 150 coupons during the campaign and sent them over to be put in the big box just a few days ago.

You who expected the Gift Car and didn't get it can get one of the Lukeman Motor Co. for a very small payment down.

Mrs. Al Campbell of Merritt was in the city yesterday.

GOOD SIGNS MARK NEW YEAR FOR LEGION MEN

Campaign For Membership—New Light For Hall—Open House For Bonus Applicants.

Jacksonville Post No. 279,
American Legion, starts the New Year with good signs, both outward and inward. The success of the state organization in its fight for the bonus has awakened people to the potential strength of the Legion, and it is probable that membership in the local post can be given a considerable extension.
As a first means of publicity importance is attached to the new sign, painted by John Hoover and presented to the post, to be hung outside the legion headquarters
above the Chamber of Commerce.
It is a pretty piece of painting,
with the legion seal done in gold paint on the lower third of the shield.

An open house for all service men of the county will be the first big event of the year, and will be held as soon as application blanks for payment of the state bonus are received. A notice will be sent to every service man in the county, and a corps of stenographers will be on hand at the legion headquarters to make out the applications for those who desire their aid. Some interesting social events are under discussion.

At the first meeting of the year
held Tuesday night, the following officers were installed for the coming year:
Charles M. Kehl, commander;
Virgil Edwards, vice commander;
Ralph Jennings, adjutant; W. J.
Hauke, finance officer; F. G. Norbory, medical officer; Rev. G. E.
Stickney, chaplain; Elmer Henderson, historian; C. P. Siegfried, employment officer; Morrison
Worthington, war risk officer;
Hugh Green and W. T. Harmon,
directors; Rev. W. H. Marbach, Walton Bland, Edward Litter, Homer Bradley, Howard Wood-
man, J. C. Walker and John Carl, executive committee.

FUNERALS

Brief, grave ceremonies for Mrs. Sallie H. Wright, former Morgan county resident who died in Springfield, were held at Franklin yesterday morning by Rev. H. A. Sherman of the Methodist church. The chief service had been held in Springfield.

The flowers at the grave were in care of Mrs. Martin Anderson, Miss Curtis Scott and Mrs. Milton Seymour.

Pallbearers were William Whalen, Glenn Harvey, Austin
Seymour, George Boulware, Milton Seymour and Theron Wright.

Services in honor of W. J.
Moore were held at the Gillham funeral home at 2:30 yesterday afternoon, with Rev. M. L. Pontius of Central Christian church in charge. Interment was in Jacksonville cemetery.

The music was furnished by a quartet consisting of Miss Cora Graham, Mrs. Mae Hitt, T. H.
Rapp and W. W. Gillham.

Flowers were cared for by Mrs.
John Roberts, Mrs. William Roberts and the Misses Zeta Woods and Viola Roberts.

Pallbearers were George Harney, C. L. Rice, Walter Rice, William Osborne, Dr. W. O.
Walte and Harry Hutches.

Owings
Funeral services for Willard
Owings were conducted in charge of Rev. M. L. Pontius of Central Christian church at the Gillham funeral home yesterday morning with interment following in Diamond Grove.

Music was furnished by a quartet
composed of Mrs. Herbert Mawson, Mrs. Frank Ranson, John G. Lazenby
and Robert Scott.

The floral tributes were in care of the Misses Louise Middleton and Al-vira Richardson and Mrs. Herbert Mawson.

Pallbearers were Lee Berry, Orville Davis, Albert Robinson, Harvey McGlasen, M. Rowe and Taylor
Rowe.

WITH THE SICK
Crum Cleary is a patient at Passavant hospital having undergone a minor operation.

Mrs. Josephine Husband of Valley City and Mrs. Archie Sawyers of Griggsville were Passavant patients who left for their homes
on the evening train Wednesday.

Clifton Davis of Pisgah is a patient at Our Savior's hospital with a swollen hand and arm resulting from an infected finger discovered on the night of December 31, the cause being unknown.

A number of x-ray pictures of the spine and shoulders of C. H.
Giller of White Hall have been taken, with a view to determining the exact injury done in his recent fall from a load of straw.
He sleeps continually, but is perfectly conscious when he is spoken to, making probable some serious injury to a nerve. Although 67 years of age he has never been ill before.

WORK IN PROGRESS ON WABASH SUBWAY

Much Needed Improvement Being Made On Hard Road East of Arnold.

There is good news in the statement that the Wabash railroad
now has a force of men engaged in the building of the subway on the hard road of Arnold. People who have traveled over the hard road know that the road is finished up to the railroad on both sides and that because of the lack of the subway a detour is necessary,
and at present the detour stretch
is in bad condition and the stalling of cars is a matter of frequent occurrence.

Good progress has already been made in the work of excavating preparatory to the placing of the steel trusses. It is not a big task and unless the weather becomes unfavorable it is reasonable to expect that the subway will be completed and in use within three weeks' time.

Several weeks ago when the matter was taken up by local people with the highway department of the state, assurance was given that the Wabash management had promised to take early action and to construct the subway just as soon as possible. When the subway is finished and in use the hard road will be completed clear from the city limits for a stretch of about 17 miles. The lack of subway facilities has been responsible for several automobile accidents within the past few weeks.

WELL KNOWN WOMEN TO WATCH AUTO TRAFFIC
Fast driving is not likely to be a popular pastime on West College avenue. The city council has appointed a group of well known women resident on that street to act as traffic officers.
The women are willing to volunteer for the work because they recognize that without officers constantly on the watch that College avenue will rapidly become a mere speedway.

This list of special traffic officers includes the following: Mrs.
Lillian I. Danskin, Mrs. F. J. Andrews, Jr., Mrs. E. P. Brockhouse, Mrs. W. C. Bradish, Miss Florence
Ward, Mrs. Abner Thompson, Mrs.

MRS. GRIFFITH DIES AT DELAND, FLA.

Mother of Mrs. T. J. Pinner Passed Away at Great Age — Burial
Will Take Place in Springfield.

A telegram received Wednesday
by Miss Ellie Trabue brought the news of the death of Mrs. Alice Griffith at midnight Tuesday at DeLand, Fla. Mrs. Griffith went to the southern city a number of weeks ago accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. T. J. Pinner.

The deceased, who was more than ninety years of age, was a member of the first class of Illinois Woman's college. Her maiden name was Miss Alice McElroy and her marriage to Dr. B. M. Griffith occurred in Louisiana, Mo., in 1859. They subsequently became residents of Springfield and lived there for many years.

Subsequent to the death of her husband, Mrs. Griffith came to Jacksonville to make her home
with her daughter at Fairfield.
Prior to her marriage Mrs.
Griffith was engaged for a number of years as a teacher. A woman of remarkable mental and physical strength, Mrs. Griffith until a very recent time maintained her interest in the general affairs of life. Mrs. Griffith is survived by two children, Mrs. Pinner of this city, and Dr. Barrette Griffith of Springfield.

The remains are to be taken to Springfield where the funeral will be held on Friday.

ASSIGNED TO SPECIAL WORK IN NEW YORK

F. R. Sheffield of Local Revenue Office One of Six Going to Manhattan District — S. J.
Tompkins Here to Seek New Location.

S. J. Tompkins, chief deputy in the office of Internal Revenue Collector Schwaner, was in Jacksonville yesterday for a conference with C. R. Sheffield, who is in charge of the local revenue office. It is necessary for the office to be removed soon from the Scott Block because of the rebuilding plans of the physicians who have purchased the building.
Several locations are under consideration but a decision has not been reached.

Mr. Sheffield is to leave today for New York City to spend a number of weeks. He has been chosen as one of the six deputies from this district and assigned to the Manhattan district in New York for special income tax work.
This is a recognition of the good work that Mr. Sheffield has done, as the six best qualified for the special assignment in the east were chosen from 50 or more deputies serving in this district.

During Mr. Sheffield's absence in the east another deputy will be sent here to take charge of the local office.

The individual income tax forms for the persons who pay tax on incomes of $2,000 or less have already been issued and are being distributed. Mr. Tompkins said yesterday that the forms for salaries of $5,000 or more and for corporations are expected
soon and will be put into mails for delivery as speedily as they reach the office of the collector.

MOTION PICTURES SHOW AT J. H. S.

Four reels of motion pictures
were shown at the high school
yesterday afternoon at the close of school for the benefit of the students. The reels are released by the General Electric company and are high class pictures of the educational type. The pictures were to have been shown at the high school in February but owing to some error on the part of the company they were sent a month ahead of schedule.

The first picture was entitled
"The King of the Forest" and was an excellent review of the lumber industry, taking the process
from the forests, the lumber camps and through the manufacturing plants. The other film, a three reel picture "King of the Rails," showed the electrification
of the Chicago, Milwaukee and St.
Paul railroad over the Rocky mountains. The last picture was notable for its wonderful scenic parts as well as for its clear portraying of the scientific development of transportation by means of electricity.

BRINGS SUIT TO CLEAR TITLE

A bill was filed Wednesday by Mer. Ida Josephine May, directed against Carl Joseph May, in order to straighten out the title to a certain tract of land located in Sect. 5-14-11. The complainant, who is represented by William N.
Hairgrove, shows that the title
was taken in the name of the defendant and that because of her abandonment by her husband and his failure to provide for her, that the title to the property should be passed to her.

It is set forth that she was equally interested with Carl J.
May in the purchase of the property, altho the title at the time was vested in him.

NEW YORK SAYS
DEAL IS STILL ON

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—The deal by which the New York Yankees seek to acquire Jackie May, south-paw pitcher of the Vernon club of the Pacific Coast League, is still on so far as the local club is concerned, Business Manager E. G. Barrow said today when informed of reports from Los Angeles that William Essick, Vernon manager, had declared negotiations were called off.

"If the Vernon club has cancelled the deal we have not been officially informed of it," Mr. Barrow declared, "and so far as we are concerned it is still pending."

"It was understood here that the two clubs had agreed on an exchange of four players and a cash consideration involving about $75,000 for May, but that a temporary hitch developed thru difficulty in securing waivers on one or two of the Yankee players slated to go to the coast team.

SUSANNE LENGLEN
MAKES GOOD START

NICE, France, Jan. 3.—Susanne Lenglen won a brilliant victory upon her re-appearance in singles tennis today when she defeated Miss Howett of England, 6 to 1, 6 to 0, in the first round of the Nice tournament. The champion appeared in good condition after her absence during the past Wimbledon tournament and her service seemed to be speedier.

Miss Lenglen's participation in the singles caused much favorable comment, and the Riviera is looking forward to the arrival of Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory for the February tournament in the hope that the two will meet again on the courts.

WILL GET TEAM

TIGER MASCOT
Boston, Jan. 3.—John F. Howard of Haverhill, father of Albert Howard, member of the Princeton varsity squad last fall said today that he was starting for India next week with the intention of fulfilling a promise made to Princeton players here November 10, if they beat Harvard the next day he would get them a tiger mascot from the jungle. Princeton won and a tiger cub will be shipped by Howard as soon as he reaches India, he said.

Billy Evans Says

What is the most difficult task that confronts the manager of a ball club?

It is reasonable to suppose that all baseball managers, whether the leader of a big league team or an amateur aggregation, meet with the same obstacles.

To get the major league viewpoint on what is the toughest assignment managers are up against in an effort to turn out a winner, I put the question to a half dozen big league managers last summer.

No doubt the question of preserving harmony on a club will strike many as the big issue. True, harmony on a ball club is vital to success, yet harmony isn't the answer.

Discipline also looms up as a very necessary quality. Regardless of the greatness of any baseball aggregation, lack of discipline, which also means lack of condition, is fatal. This fact has been proved of a recent date in major league circles.

While the various managers with whom I discussed the question of the greatest task of a manager, touched on discipline and harmony as very necessary, none of them rated either as the most vital asset to a great ball club.

Pitching is the greatest worry of every major league ball club if you are willing to take the word of the men who are directing the destinies of the major league clubs.

"You must have the pitching if you are to get anywhere in baseball," remarked one manager.

PRINCETON GREAT

COMEBACK TEAM

Princeton's sensational comeback in the Chicago game recalls the famous uphill fight of Pennsylvania with Michigan, back in 1912.

In that battle the Maize and Blue was leading the Quaker platoon, 21 to 7, at the end of the first half. And as the score indicates, the Yost warriors had completely outplayed the Red and Blue. Obviously, therefore, it looked all over but the shouting.

Penn, tho, was not thru. In fact, hadn't got started. But with the opening of the third period a different tale was unfolded. The Quakers, fighting desperately, put on a great offensive, carrying the battle to the foe.

Michigan's eleven was played practically to a standstill, and slowly but surely Penn overhauled the big Ann Arbor advantage. Two touchdowns were scored during those last two quarters, but one goal was missed. Thus the count stood 21 to 20 Michigan, with but a few minutes left to play.

And then—with 30 seconds remaining—it happened, and Michigan saw apparent victory snatched from it. The fast-tiring Wolverines were forced to punt. The boot was a good one.

But Dick Marshall, standing on his own 45 yard stripe, grabbed the spinning pig skin as it sailed thru the air and dashed thru the entire Yost machine, 55 precious yards, for the winning tally. Then the final whistle chirped.

Thus, Michigan, 14 points ahead at half-time and with the embargo apparently "in," was beaten out by a fighting Pennsylvania unit plus that scintillating center of little Dick Marshall's in the ebbing moments of the struggle.

MANAGER FOHL HAS HIS WORK CUT OUT

While the St. Louis Browns finished only a game behind New York last season, Manager Lee Fohl has his work cut out if he is to do as well in 1923.

What about Shocker? Will the ace of the Browns' staff have another big year?

Then there is "Shucks" Prunett, the young collegian, who was such a great help to Fohl. Was he a flash, or will he improve with the year's experience?

Can Ray Kolp come through in such an impressive manner as he did in 1922? Kolp hasn't a great deal of stuff, but is a smart pitcher.

Will Van Gilder, the enigma of the staff, really do the fine work he is capable of?

Pitching wins pennants, and Fohl's staff is a very uncertain one.

QUARTERLY CONFERENCE

Rev. E. L. Pletcher, district superintendent, will hold the quarterly conference of the Durbin and Providence charge, at Durbin, Saturday, January 6th, at 2 o'clock p. m. This is a very important meeting and it is earnestly desired that all the official members may be present.

WILL GIVE CARD PARTY

Another one of the series of Card parties will be given at Franklin this evening. The ladies of the Catholic church parish are giving the party and it will be held in the Marquette hall. Music will be part of the entertainment and a good time socially is expected.

ILLINOIS ATHLETES
MADE FINE RECORD

Two Major Championships Won in 1922—One Minor Championship Won and World's Relay Record Established.

ILLINOIS ATHLETIC

RECORD FOR 1922

Major sport championships won—Baseball and track.
Minor sport championship won—Wrestling.
World's record established—Four mile relay race.

Urbana, Ill., Jan. 3.—University of Illinois athletes gave a pretty good account of themselves during the year.

The Illini won Big Ten conference championships in two of the four major sports—baseball and track.

Considering the keen competition in the conference, it was no mean achievement to wrest supremacy in just half of the major sport championships which are contested for.

And this feat was all the more noteworthy since it was the second year straight that Coach Carl Lundgren's baseball men had captured the Big Ten honors and the third year in a row that Coach Harry Gill's track men had conquered the conference.

The wrestling team won the conference championship when Coach Paul Prehn's young grapplers took all of their six dual meets. The Illini mat men incidentally have lost only one out of 15 dual meets in three years, since since the advent of Prehn.

The greatest Illini track performance of the year was the feat of the four mile relay team in the races at Drake, where they established a new world's record of 17:45. The former record was 17:51 2-5. The Illini runners were Yates, Patterson, Wharton and McGinnis.

In basketball in 1922 Illinois won seven of the 12 conference games played. The Illini won two swimming meets and lost two. In golf they placed fourth in the intercollegiate meet. In tennis Illinois took the conference championships in the singles, and ranked fourth in the conference gymnastic meets.

Zuppke's Record.
This record is a balm for Orange and Blue enthusiasts who look back upon football season in which Illinois lost five games. At the same time they remember that in ten years Zuppke has won three championships and tied another and that he has a margin of victory over all the other Big Ten universities, excepting Ohio and Michigan, which tied up with him this year.

Zuppke has lost eight conference games in two years—it took him eight years to drop nine contests. That he maintains his position at the top of the record in spite of this handicap is noteworthy.

Despite rumors that Bob Zuppke would be called to his alma mater, Wisconsin, to succeed John Richards, it may be written down that the famous little mentor will not leave Illinois. He likes to coach for the Illini and they reciprocate the sentiment.

One big event in Illinois sports annals was the actual beginning of the Memorial stadium, which will cost upwards of two million dollars and will seat 55,000 persons to start with. Its seating capacity can be increased to 120,000 when desired.

Coaching Course Is Popular.
Increased popularity of the four year course for athletic coaches was another feature. Illinois was the first university to establish such a course with work leading to a degree of bachelor of science.

Early in January Coaches Harry Gill and Carl Lundgren will call out their squads. Gill has lost most of the veterans who made his squad such a well-rounded machine but is said to have some promising sophomores. In baseball most of Lundgren's championship nine is available. The Illini players will take a southern trip in April according to custom.

FORUM POSTPONED

The regular meeting of Forum society of the high school was postponed yesterday for one week as the fact that school had just reopened did not augur well for a well-prepared meeting.

Steve O'Neill is still a great catcher, but he is a veteran. The Indian's star backstop is going rather than coming.

However, there are several clubs in the American league that could use a veteran backstop like Steve to great advantage. In return, they might be able to offer some promising youngsters.

Myatt, with the year's experience he had at Milwaukee seems ready to make a big go of it in the American league. Cleveland certainly thought so or it would never have made the big offer it did for his services.

TENNIS ASSOCIATION TO ELECT OFFICERS

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Officers of the United States Lawn Tennis association to be elected at the annual meeting in New York February 3, will represent most of the leading centers of the game's activity, according to the formal list of nominations made public tonight.

Dwight F. Davis of St. Louis, donor of the famous international team trophy bearing his name, has been nominated to succeed Julian S. Myrick of New York, as president.

Mr. Davis, who now holds the office of vice president, will represent the middle west. Paul B. Williams of Utica, N. Y., will succeed the late Charles Garland of Pittsburgh as secretary, and L. B. Dailey, East Orange, N. J., will replace A. Y. Laach, Jr., of Washington, as treasurer.

Other officers named for election at the annual meeting include: delegates at large, R. N. Williams, II, Philadelphia; Jones W. Merseau, New York, and Samuel H. Collom, Philadelphia.

QUINCY GETS

THREE EYE BERTH

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Quincy, Ill., will be awarded the franchise in the Three I League formerly held by Moline. President Tearney announced tonight.

Harry Hofer and Charles Altonby of Quincy are back of the move to bring the franchise to Quincy, President Tearney said, and he added that the club will be supported by a fans' association.

A meeting to perfect the 1923 circuit is to be called as soon as a guarantee is received from Quincy, President Tearney said. Springfield also was considered for the franchise but negotiations were dropped.

MEMBERS OF ORIOLES
WILL PAY TRIBUTE

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—Members of the Famous Baltimore Orioles of the nineties, men whose names have been carved in baseball's hall of fame, will pay final tribute tomorrow to one of the most illustrious of their comrades—William H. (Wee Willie) Keeler, who died Monday.

Pall bearers at the funeral in Brooklyn were expected to include John J. McGraw, manager of the world's champion Giants; Wilbert Robinson, manager of the Brooklyn Nationals; Kid Gleason, manager of the Chicago White Sox; Hugh Jennings, former Detroit pilot, and now assistant to McGraw, and Joe Kelly, scout for the Yankees. All played with Keeler on the Oriole club which won National League championships.

Tonight ritual services were held by the Order of Elks of which Keeler was a member.

YANKS TRADE

CATCHER DEVORMER

New York, Jan. 3.—The New York Yankees today announced that Al Devormer, substitute catcher had been traded to the Boston Red Sox for two recruits, George Pitgras, a pitcher, and Harvey Hendrick, an outfielder.

A meeting to perfect the 1923

circuit is to be called as soon as a guarantee is received from Quincy, President Tearney said. Springfield also was considered for the franchise but negotiations were dropped.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

WHEAT TOOK AN UPWARD SWING

CHICAGO, Jan. 3.—Wheat
took an upward swing in price
today, helped by indications of liberal export business and by relative steadiness of quotations
at Liverpool in the face of severe declines yesterday on this side of the Atlantic. Today's close here was firm, 1½ to 2¢ net higher.
With May $1.20½ to $1.20½ and July $1.11½ to $1.12. Corn gained 1½ to 1½¢, oats 1½ to 1½¢, and provisions 5¢ to 20¢.

From the outset today, it was apparent that urgent selling which had been conspicuous in the wheat market or late had come to a halt, and that the majority of traders leaned to the view that there had been decline enough for the time being. Signs also were in evidence that good-sized export dealings were underway and altho definite estimates of the amount were lacking the effect in tending to renew bullish sentiment was quickly manifest.

Germany was reported as having been a purchaser of wheat to be shipped from ports on the Gulf of Mexico and to have taken since Friday more than 3,000,000 bushels of rye.

Gossip of improvement in flour counted further as an aid to higher prices for wheat and some did fresh unfavorable advice about the condition of the domestic winter crop especially complaints of dry weather and lack of snow protection in western Kansas and Oklahoma. With persistent general buying as well as continued demand from shorts the market squarely reversed yesterday's action, and finished at almost today's figures.

Corn and oats responded to the fact that receipts of corn showed a falling of fin volume.

Provisions were governed chiefly by the course of hog values.

Mrs. Mary Ennis spent a few days last week at the home of G.
M. Ratigan and family.

NEW YORK STOCKS

New York, Jan. 3.—Stocks
moved to higher ground in today's market despite a bear attack
which followed publication of cable despatches announcing that the French credit had rejected the British reparations plan. This speculative selling caused temporary unsettlement but the splendid resistance off to bear pressure finally induced shorts to abandon their attempt to depress
the market and prices turned upward under the stimulating influence of lower call money rates
and aggressive pool operations.
The steady and almost uninterrupted advance in prices during December and led bear interests to believe that the technical structure of the market had been weakened and the unfavorable foreign news was used as an excuse to test its strength. While public participation in the market recently has been considered as a negligible factor today's sharp rebound in prices was construed
as an indication that operators for the advance continued in a strong position.
